

To the brave, brave men and women who serve in the Hartford Police Department.

Thank you.

Thank you for your courage, for your service, for your dedication to this community. Thank you for seeing the worst and still doing your best to protect us in all situations. We cannot understand or comprehend the sacrifices you make or the risks you take as a normal part of your life, and we as a society easily forget how high the cost of a safe community really is. We take your work for granted, never showing gratitude for the security and protection you provide. You do your duty fearlessly, quietly, in the background, never asking for rewards or recognition. There is hardly a more honorable profession in this world than the one you have chosen. All around us, people are turning against each other, continuing the violence, and trying to place blame. Although we have never met, I salute you, I thank you, and I trust you. We will stand behind you or in front of you - wherever is necessary to encourage and support you. We do not and cannot thank you enough. God's blessings to you all. Enjoy the cookies; they are baked with hope and love.

Psalms 91: 4, 11a

"He will cover you with his feathers, and under his wings you will find refuge; his faithfulness will be your shield and rampart."

"For he will command his angels concerning you to guard you in all your ways..."

Many Thanks to You!

On Friday, I had the good fortune of meeting Officer Krick during a minor traffic violation stop. I want to personally thank him for the respect and grace that he extended to me. As I reflect on the climate in our country right now regarding our law enforcement, it occurred to me that what was a minor stop could've very easily have turned out differently for that young officer.

My husband and I would like to take this opportunity to thank all of you that put your life on the line for our community each and every day. Your unselfishness and dedication, to the badge on the uniform that you so proudly wear, deserve our gratitude and respect.

Thank you for your service and for keeping our community and its citizens safe.

Thank you to all the wonderful officers on the Hartford police department. You do a super job.

Special thanks to

Officer Beine & Horn for your help 7-9 & 7-10.

I love the slogan "Community Proud" because I believe it sums up the awesome devotion our Police, Fire and Rescue teams give to making sure our community + people of Hartford are safe, everyday. Thank you to all in each department for giving all of the citizens peace of mind. Please apply the small amount toward the memorial statue. I hope you hear everyday how much you are all appreciated. - Please Stay Safe!

Sincerely
