

From the Hartford Police Department:

NEWS RELEASE

The Hartford Police Department will be conducting a Wisconsin Department of Natural Resources Boating Safety Course at the Hartford Recreation Department on March 1, 8, 15, and 22, 2010 from 6:15 p.m. to 9:00 p.m.

Registration is open to anyone 12 year old and older. Registration forms can be completed at the Hartford Recreation Department. There is a $10.00 non-refundable registration fee paid at the time of registration. Class size is limited to the first 20 registered students.

Students successfully completing the course will receive their Wisconsin Department of Natural Resources Boating Safety Certificate allowing them to operate a motorboat. Wisconsin boating safety certification is required for operators born on or after January 1, 1989.