

Victim Assistance

Being the victim of a crime is a very disturbing experience. The purpose of this section is to share with you some of the rights you have as the victim of a criminal act. You have the right to have any recovered stolen property returned to you as quickly as possible when it is no longer needed for evidentiary purposes. You have the right to have restitution ordered by a court. It is important that you gather and keep accurate documentation about your losses. You have the right to provide a statement for consideration concerning the disposition of the offender. The following are several resources that are available to assist you as you deal with you incident:
