

I just reviewed our policy at Hartford Counseling regarding how to handle somebody who appears to be serious about going through with a suicide attempt. I suggested our counselors contact your department's non-emergency number for an officer visit or the emergency line, if somebody seems outside of reality and potentially dangerous.

It is with great pride that I point to your department as a compassionate and professional resource. There are communities where I would hesitate. Not Hartford.

--

Gary Probst, LPC, MA, MAML
Hartford Counseling
384 W. Sumner Street
Hartford, WI 53027
gprobstwin@gmail.com
262-244-0729
920-382-0071