

Thank you for alerting me to the fact my plates were expired. I have never failed to renew them before so had you not stopped me I would not have given it a second thought. It's been quit a year for our family. So again I just wanted to thank you. I am sure you may not receive much gratitude for the job you do on a daily basis so I thought it fitting especially at this time of year.

Like soft falling snow
on a winter's night,
may your holiday shimmer with peace.

Blessings on the New Year!
