

Dear police department

This is a letter to thank you for how you put yourself in danger to help us. I am also inspired to help others. I want to thank you and wish you have a merry christmas with your family. Also to have a happy new year.

Sincerely,

To the Hartford Police Department

Thank you for keeping our town and my family safe for a lot more than just fourteen years. It is amazing that you are willing to risk your lives to protect our town from criminals. You guys are the superheroes of Hartford! You are one of the main reasons that Hartford is such a good town; you are always on the lookout. Thanks for always keeping us safe.
